

REPUBLICANS TO MEET SATURDAY

Marion Countian Signally Honored by Hamilton County Convention.

Republicans in the Third Congressional District are now selecting delegates for the Third Congressional District Convention which will select delegates to the National Republican convention. Hamilton county held its convention Saturday, and instructed its delegates 25 in number for Foster V. Brown of Chattanooga and D. A. Tate of this county as delegates to the Chicago Convention, to be selected at the 3rd Congressional District Convention. The latter selection was somewhat of a surprise, first because never before have Marion Republicans had a delegate chosen from their own ranks by an outside county—which is somewhat of an honor in itself—and second, because of the fact that Mr. Tate's candidacy had only been mentioned before in this county in brief words by the Hustler in connection with the candidacy of Hon. Foster V. Brown. Mr. Brown has already said it was his desire for the republicans of Marion to support him in their convention, and Mr. Tate is now before the people with a like desire.

The Republicans of Marion will meet in convention Saturday and this will be one of the subjects of discussion, and Mr. Tate asks the harmonious support of the Republicans attending. He desires the honor, not because of hope of recompense, but because he wishes the endorsement of his fellow citizens, and asks their support. It is very probable that Bradley County with five more delegates will honor him in the same way Hamilton county has.

Besides the matter of delegates to the National Republican Convention, June 7, 1916, delegates will also be chosen for the various conventions to nominate candidates for congress and for governor, and also to attend the State Convention to elect delegates to the national convention. There will be plenty of business to transact, and it is expected there will be a big attendance of Republicans. A thoroughly harmonious meeting is desired.

ARRAYED IN WHITE PRETENDED ANGELS

WHITWELL, Tenn., Feb. 14.—Reliable reports are made of the peculiar actions of some holy rollers on Whitwell mountain. A woman was ill with consumption in English Cove, and a large number of the rollers are said to have called to see her one night. On leaving they assured her that two angels would call on her, the next night, so the report goes, and, on the next night two of the "sisters" arrayed themselves in white gowns, and other devices like angels—some say wings—and appeared upon the consumptive lady. The effect, however, was not quite what was expected, for she did not receive them quite as heavenly visitors, but on the contrary was scared nearly into fits, and she was unable to make any answer to their angelic salutations. The affair caused a big sensation, and lots of criticism.

Dallas, Texas.

Special to the News.

As I failed to show up last week, I will take an early start this week.

I have just received the sad information that Mrs. Cynthia Harvey of Fort Worth was dead. Mrs. Harvey was a sister of Mrs. J. A. Lewis of Fort Worth and has a large number of relatives and friends in the Sequatchie Valley to mourn her death. Mrs. Harvey was a good christian lady and leaves a husband and several children, and a host of friends in the Fort.

Mrs. J. A. Lewis has been very low and at one time was not expected to recover. I have not heard from her lately, but hope that she is improving. I regret very much that I have not had the opportunity of going to see them, but my circumstances are so that I cannot leave home.

T. S. Bracken of Arlington, Texas, was in Dallas on business and pleasure latter part of last week. He spent one night with A. L. Bracken. Come again, Tom, we are always glad to see you come.

Rev. Kay Bracken of Penile, Texas, was in Dallas a little while Monday. He was on his way to Cleburn, Texas, and stopped to visit his sick aunt, Mrs. A. L. Bracken.

Our winter is still hanging on, while it is not very cold, it keeps the farmers from planting, and gives the coal dealer an opportunity to sell 1600 pounds of coal for a ton at $9. One dealer tried short weight on the city and got into serious trouble.

I was very sorry to hear of the sickness of my old friend, W. C. Moore, and hope he has recovered and will be enjoying the best of health by the time he reads this in the News.

I have been trying to get some more subscribers for the News, and think I will succeed later on. I think it is a duty one owes to his family to furnish them with their home paper. It keeps us all posted on the movements of old friends, and shows a feeling of loyalty to the home of childhood days. The old hills and mountains there, it is a pleasure to me to think of them. They are as a bright light on the path of life, and it is with pleasure that I think of them. There is no paper that comes to my home that I take the interest in that I do in reading the News, but for national and political news I look at the daily press. Every week I look for the News with the same interest that I look for a letter from a dear friend, and read each letter carefully hoping to hear from somebody that I once knew and I am never disappointed, because there is never a copy of the News which does not contain some message that will reward one for the reading. The Editor of the News is doing great work and should be helped and appreciated more.

I was glad to see a piece from J. G. of Eastland. Come again, "J. G."

I hope "Old Joe" will soon be in the ring.

Come all of you correspondents I like to read your letters, and it helps the Editor to bear his burden and enables him to give us a better paper at less expense. I would be glad to know more of the writers if possibly.

Mrs. Bracken's condition remains about the same, except she gets weaker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Payne of Ryla, Texas, will return home in a few days. They have been here for several weeks for Mrs. Payne to have medical treatment.

PROMINENT JASPER MAN SUDDENLY STRICKEN

JASPER, Tenn., Feb. 14.—H. M. Deakins, one of the most prominent men of Jasper, and well known throughout the entire valley, was stricken with paralysis Thursday morning of last week. He was walking on College Street, near J. C. Kelly's residence early in the morning, when the shock came, and he fell on the sidewalk. Assistance was summoned and he was conveyed to his home, and is in a critical condition. He has been unable to speak, but is thought to be recovering. Mr. Deakins is prominent in lodge circles, and represents several fire insurance companies.

Mrs. Chas. Curtis

Mrs. Chas. Curtis died Saturday night at 8:45 o'clock of blood poisoning. She leaves a husband, Chas. Curtis, who is postmaster, and manager of the Sequachee Supply Store, and five children, Roy, Mildred, Glen, Merna, and an infant only nine days old at the time of her death. Funeral services were conducted from Owen Church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Thurston, of Whitwell, officiating. Interment was made in the Laster graveyard, two miles south of Sequachee. Mrs. Curtis, before her marriage, was a member of the Oyler family, of Sulphur Spring, Ga. She was born Sept. 14, 1882, and was brought up in the Episcopal Church, but joined the Methodist Church in 1904. She was married to Mr. Curtis in 1903, and to them were born six children, five of whom are living. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. Curtis and children in his bereavement. It is a hard blow to lose a wife and mother, but it is hoped that time will alleviate the sorrow, and bring resignation. Mrs. Curtis was a most exemplary woman, and a devoted wife and mother, always alert to the best interests of her husband and children.

DON'T HAVE STOMACH TROUBLE!
INDIGESTION AND CONSTIPATION WORK IN HARMONY WITH EACH OTHER, CORRECT THESE INSIDIOUS ILLS WITH "HERBMYSTIC," NATURE'S GREATEST TONIC.

There are no diseases in the world so prevalent as indigestion and constipation. These two work in harmony with each other and there are few diseases that can add more misery to your life than these. Frequently it starts from overworking the stomach caused by too rich food or improper mastication. Your stomach is a marvellous chemist. Into it you put many articles of food and liquids. It changes the solids to fluids and expels the useless bulk into channels which expel it from the body. When the stomach action is impaired the solid foods taken therein rest upon it as a heavy, dragging burden, preventing it from producing nourishment. It is by all organs working in harmony that insure a healthy stomach. "HERBMYSTIC" contains eleven different and distinct herbs, one to three of which act directly upon the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, and while it is correcting the ailments of one it does not harm the other, but puts them in perfect working order, and when these vital organs are working in perfect harmony your blood is pure and health-sustaining, your stomach active and digestion good, liver working properly and biliousness gone, your kidneys active and pains in the back are eliminated.

If your appetite is not good a few doses of "Herbmystic" will give you a good appetite to eat anything and you can rest assured that no bad after effects will follow, such as sick stomach, sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, gases forming on stomach due to improper digestion, or distension of bowels, with fermentation of the food. Take two teaspoonfuls of "Herbmystic" after a hearty meal and note the pleasing, soothing effect. "Herbmystic" is sold in Sequatchie Valley by Evans & Pope, Whitwell; J. W. Simpson & Son, Jasper; Jno. J. Ingle, South Pittsburg.
